CUSTOMS:

Military Customs and Immigration Concerns: For SOFA status personnel, CIQ facilities are available 24 hours daily at Yokota AB. For Non-SOFA civilians entering Yokota AB, the Immigrations Office hours are daily from 0500-2200 hrs. For departures, if non-SOFA civilians are departing before the Yokota Immigration Office is open, they may process out of country the day prior to catch their flight. ALL passengers with non-SOFA status are recommended to be stamped out of country to compete for Space-A Seats on all AMC Flights prior to roll call; but passengers may wait until after they are selected and checked in for a flight before stamping out of the country. During an emergency, a non-SOFA civilian is not able to process out of the country but has to depart before the Yokota Immigration Office reopens, the Yokota AB Military Customs office will ensure that the Embarkation card for Foreigner-2 is turned over to the Government of Japan Immigration office to ensure that the civilian's departure is properly logged.
